American Road Trips

"American Road Trips" is a video tribute and a guidebook to seeing America by car. Hosted by Steve Fox, ABC Network Travel Correspondent, each episode will take you on a classic journey of discovery. From the charming cities of our nation to its beautiful wilderness areas, you will see the country's most scenic, interesting and spectacular places . . . and meet its most fascinating people.

TRAVEL CHANNEL

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

CHRONICLE

A half-hour travel series hosted by Mary Richardson and Peter Mehegan, CHRONICLE takes viewers to the "Main Streets and Backroads" of the U.S., as well as to many international destinations. CHRONICLE tells the story of people, and leaves viewers with a richer, more three-dimensional image of a region, island or town. This show offers something for everyone as they travel through much of New England, Florida and California; and for those interested in the more exotic, CHRONICLE takes us to the Pyramids of Egypt and talks about education in Japan.

A SENSE OF PLACE WITH DENA KAYE

Dena Kaye, former travel correspondent for CBS NEWS, hosts this half hour show that combines beautiful pictures and great talkers. It's informative and informal, featuring well-known guests associated with or who just plain love a destination. Their experiences and what-not-to-miss suggestions bring each place to life.

FOCUS ON BRITAIN

This exciting new program, introduced by well-known television and movie personality, Michael Caine, covers the best that British life has to offer. The 13 half-hour series will cover everything from "Stately Homes of England," which takes viewers to legendary castles and palaces, to "Sport of Kings," which focuses on one of Britain's most-loved sports, horse racing.

INSIDE TRAVEL

In this half-hour program, INSIDE TRAVEL explores the traveling public's pet peeves and concerns, offering travel options and bargains that every tourist wants to know. With an eye toward current events in a consumer's world, top industry editors advise viewers on news and travel trends relating to value, health, safety, and the environment. Want to know where, when and how to go this year? A stimulating round-table discussion, INSIDE TRAVEL helps you figure out the ever-changing, often complex travel industry, so you can relax and plan a great vacation.

UNITED STATES

On March 4th, 1991, the Travel Channel will present UNITED STATES, a fifty-episode, half hour series, that will unveil the best videos that each State has to offer. Hosted by a notable spokesperson, each episode will feature introductory remarks and topical information about each State.

COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD

On March 1st, 1991, the Travel Channel will debut a new series entitled COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD. Each of its ten "theme weeks" will feature a different country, with daily segments focusing on particular states or regions.

The series will take a fresh look at ancient lands and interesting people through an exploration of their cultures and customs. Some of the tentative areas to be covered include: Canada, China, Eastern Europe, France, Germany, Great Britain, India, Italy, Japan, Mexico and Spain.
